Source: Insight Investment and Rimes. Fund performance is shown for share class S £ Acc and is calculated as total return, including reinvested income, gross of fees and expenses. Gross of fees performance results do not reflect the deduction of charges, which will reduce investors' returns. Benchmark performance shown is for 1-month SONIA (previously 3-Month GBP LIBOR until 1st January 2020). Performance for periods over one year is annualised. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and any income from them will fluctuate and is not guaranteed (this may be partly due to exchange rate fluctuations). Investors may not get back the full amount invested. Investors must read all performance information alongside the full performance information in the KIID.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTS

The Fund outperformed its cash benchmark in March, ending with a running yield of 67 bp ahead of one-month SONIA and an average rating of AAA. Risk assets suffered losses, as the prospect of a global trade war weighed on investor sentiment. European structured credit was mixed. Consumer and prime residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS) did well. Higher beta asset classes, including collateralised loan obligations, succumbed to a sell-off. US structured credit saw strong issuance. However, a challenging macroeconomic backdrop, weakening fundamentals, minimal new issue concessions and oversupply in parts of the curve caused AAA-rated spreads to widen by 5-10 bp and BBB-rated spreads by 20-30 bp. The Fund was active in the primary market, reinvesting principal receipts across a range of assets. The Fund continued to add short duration securities in sectors with an attractive risk-return profile on a relative value basis, rotating out of UK prime RMBS into Australian RMBS.
